

JACQUIE WALKER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN
BUFFALO BRANCH, INC.

One merit-based scholarship in the amount of $5,000 will be awarded. This scholarship is given in honor of Jacquie Walker. Ms. Walker has been the honorary chair of AAUW's Scholarship Book Sale for several years and her community service has greatly enriched the Western New York community.

Guidelines:

- The applicant must be a female attending college in the junior or senior class of the 2018-2019 school year.
- The applicant must be a resident of one of the eight counties generally considered to comprise Western New York (Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, and Allegany).
- The applicant must have graduated from high school in Western New York.
- The applicant must be a full-time student at any accredited four-year college or university.
- The applicant must demonstrate a strong commitment to COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Application Requirements

Applications and supporting materials must be postmarked by July 31, 2018. Applications must be typed or printed. The Application materials must include the following, with your name at either the top or the bottom of every page:

- The completed application form.
- Proof of enrollment for the coming year if not shown on transcript.
- A brief personal statement and a list of student activities, paid job experience and awards/recognition/honors.
- A one page or longer essay on applicant's community service involvement. Supporting materials may be included.
- Two letters of recommendation, each including the name and phone number of the recommender. Letters must relate to recent activity (after high school).
 - one from an academic recommender
 - one from a community service supervisor
- OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS listing all colleges attended since high school graduation. These will be returned if requested. The letter of recommendation and the transcripts may be sent in one of two ways:
 1. Recommenders and colleges may send the documents directly to the address provided.
 2. The applicant may obtain sealed original letters of recommendation and transcripts. These documents may be sent by the applicant along with the application in a single envelope.

In either case applicants are responsible for ensuring that the documents are received by the deadline. Late supporting materials or missing supporting materials may disqualify the application.

The applicant must attend a personal interview if requested to do so.

Awards will be presented in September, 2018. AAUW board members may not apply.

Send completed applications and all supporting materials to:
